News from members

Ev Hales recent trip to the north-west:

"Painting in the Pilbara was all I had ever expected and more. We were so well looked after by Nova Espero Creative Ventures, all we had to think about was painting, such a change from being the one doing all that part of it, so this was a real treat for me."

"Subjects were ... jumping at you every way you looked and the mood of the scene changed from 'in your face colour' to the most subtle of hues. Truly an inspiring part of our very beautiful country. When home I headed to the studio .... whilst images were still fresh. The colours and patterns are truly amazing. Some of these works will appear at Lovegrove Winery in November."
