Note from the eHues Editor:

Welcome to the first edition of eHues for 2011. Those of our readers whose holidays were marred by those horrific floods, our thoughts and prayers are with you. On a brighter note, fun day was Australia Day—there were so many Akubra hats—very Australian—it gave a great creative theme for a painting! Wishing all our readers the very best for a very successful artist year in 2011. If you have an event you wish to share, please send the details to me for inclusion in the next publication coming out at the end of next month.

Coming events that you cannot miss:

- AAL—closing on the 10th February 2011. This is the 1st of 3 competitions; so lots of points to gain.
- SIG Watercolour—2011 commences on Tuesday 15th February. The subject will be “What we did on the holidays” - conveyor is by Ray Kenyon. Great way to start the year—and to pick up on any tip-bits on “how to” and “why” - come and enjoy a relaxed & informative evening.
- Kilmore Art Expo is on the 15 to the 17th April 2011—entries close on the 11 March - so hurry and get your entries in.
- Artists on Parade—Parade College—Closing has been extended to 1st Feb
- Annee Kelly - Painting Workshop this Sept in the magnificent Lot and Dordogne regions of France—WOW it will be just spectacular.

WATERCOLOUR

Tuesday 15th February 2011

7:30pm to 9:30pm

At AGRA Galleries,
Inglesby & Camberwell Rds Camberwell 3124

The Theme is "What I did over the holidays"

A dozen or so "siggers" managed to get to the NGV on 20 January, so I thought we could start with a general discussion on people's impressions of the day. We will get in touch with the gallery again in the near future to arrange more group inspections of works in their collection. They have watercolours from throughout painting history in Australia, up to the present day.

We may specify a showing of a couple of decades worth of paintings each two months, or whenever members feel they can attend. It was well worthwhile; you can get so much more from a close up look at a painting for technique than any number of prints or photos in books.

Our family spent a week or so down at Apollo Bay earlier in Jan. and while there I managed to do a couple of small wc sketches of the area. I will bring then along for show and tell. I encourage others to bring any work done over the holiday period for discussion and admiration!

See you on the 15th!

Cheers,

Ray Kenyon, Conveyor
