'EXHIBITION ECLECTIC'

ec-lec-tic Adjective /i'klektik/ ☒

Deriving ideas, style, or taste from a broad and diverse range of sources

This Exhibition runs from 4th August until 17th August 2011

AJ NORTHOVER, (Tony), is currently the President of the Whitehorse Arts Society Association, member of AGRA as well as a member of the Watercolour Society of Victoria/Australia. But, above all, he likes to think of himself as a Warrantye Artist!

Tony can be contact on 9844 2077 or email at ajn1@aspt.net.au Or visit his website at: www.tonymnorthover.com.

Of the works on display, there is no common theme, just an ECLECTIC collection of bits and pieces, painted over the last 12 months and Tony has deliberately included some things that are quite different. There will be a selection of "unframed" artwork for sale and these are a real bargain! Tony has now held at least six solo exhibitions and his work has won a number of high commendations in local art shows and more recently, a major award for "best Local Landscape" at the 2011 Yea Rotary Art Show.

In May Tony was a finalist in the Castellaville Art Prize.

He is now recognised as a very serious and viable watercolour artist.

SIG WATERCOLOUR

will be held on

Tuesday 16 August 2011

7:00pm to 9:30pm

at the AGRA Galleries Camberwell

Are you up for some more homework to be presented, and discussed, at the August meeting?

Our task this month is to us a photo of a scene or still life, whatever you like and do three paintings of it—

- 1 Using one colour, maybe paynes grey or sepia?
- 2 Using two colours, maybe add a blue?
- 3 Using three colours, a red, a blue, a yellow or green.
Or any three colours.

For your interest, Ray subscribes to a weekly email sent out by Darren Prowse, Digital Photographer of North Fitzroy. His site is www.digital-photography-school.com. In the issue from last week there was an item about composition in landscape photography, but of course the same rules apply to painting, do check the site out—it is worth it.

See you all on the 15 August at 7pm—its a lot of fun and we welcome all watercolourist!

AAL Winter Competition is now being judged — we will have a special edition advising of the outcome shortly.

“The Art of Wildlife”

1 – 18 September 2011

You will be delighted and intrigued by the artworks of the highly acclaimed Wildlife Art Society of Australasia. The exhibition showcases indigenous animals in 2D and 3D artworks in the intimate surrounds of the Bundoora Homestead Art Centre Community Access Gallery. It will remind you of the value and importance of our unique Australian heritage and with your support will aid wildlife rescuers in continuing their vital work in Melbourne’s northern suburbs.

SPECIAL EVENTS COMING UP—A MUST TO BOOK EARLY!

“DAYS OF 100 PAINTINGS”

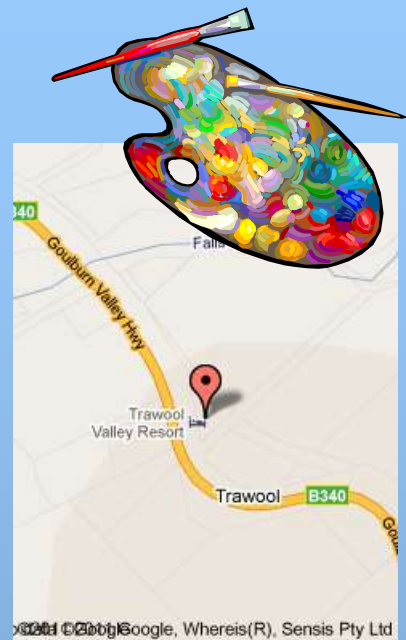

Paint-out Weekend in the beautiful Goulburn River Valley and staying in the little township of Trawool.

Friday 14th October to Sunday 16th October 2011

The Goulburn River Valley near Seymour, offers artists many “plein air” painting opportunities. Tom Roberts and Arthur Streeton loved to paint the magnificent sprawling vistas surrounding the Trawool Valley Resort, and this is where you will be staying.

Painting subjects include spectacular sculptured hills and granite outcrops, stunning forested landscapes as well as historic buildings and quaint streetscapes.

If Streeton and Roberts were mesmerised by the share beauty of the region, fair chance that our AGRA members will be blown away too! On Sunday, after a thrilling weekend of plein-air painting, you will have an appraisal afternoon before leaving the tranquil settings of Trawool for home!

Please book now to ensure that you secure this unique weekend away with a great group of fellow-artists.
